Chinese Reds Resist Bitterly But Relentless Allied Advance Pushes Front Nearer To Seoul

Tokyo, Jan. 29 (AP)—Chinese Communists died fighting in their mountain foxholes today. They resisted to the bitter end a wary but seemingly relentless Allied advance to within 10 miles of Seoul in western Korea.

Associated Press Correspondent Jim Becker reported 139 Reds were killed on one hill alone. Only eight were captured. Air strikes and artillery raked the enemy positions, but U.N. Infantrymen finally had to scramble up the frozen hillsides and blast out the Reds with grenades and rifle fire.

The U.S. Eighth Army reported advances up to three miles along the 40-mile western front.

Dump Jellied Gasoline

In the area north of Suwon, 38 P-51 fighter-bombers dumped 8,000 gallons of fiery napalm (jellied gasoline) in the heaviest Mustang mass attack of the war. Red troops and buildings were hit. Early estimates were that 100 Reds were killed and 240 buildings destroyed or damaged.

Maj. Thomas D. Robertson, of St. Paul, Minn., who led the attack, said: "There was over 30 miles of fire burning when we left."

About four hours before describing the bitter hillside battle, Becker filed a dispatch reporting an Allied advance on one mile, to a point eight miles north of Suwon.

Air Force Assists

Becker said intelligence officers estimated that the entire 50th Chinese Communist Army and three North Korean Divisions now were near the combat area, holding strong positions. At full strength these forces would total about 60,000 men, but losses are believed to have cut them considerably.

"This is delaying action with about one Chinese company to every hill," one American regimental commander said of the foxhole fight. "We just have to dig them out, because they stay in there and die fighting."

The Chinese were supported by artillery. Ground troops called for an air strike to silence the enemy guns.

One Red company was chopped up on a hill on the Suwon-Seoul highway. After the fight 50 Chinese bodies were counted. The remainder of the company had been wounded or routed.

AP Correspondent Stan Swinton said U.N. forces by dusk Monday had gained one and a half miles and won high ground overlooking the Kumgang river valley, they drove Red defenders from another hill above Wonchon, a road center.

Bob Pizzaloto Leads Bullets To 83-77 Win Over Dutchmen

A 21-point, second half scoring spurge by Bob Pizzaloto, sophomore, carried Gettysburg college's basketball team to a well-earned 83-77 victory over Lebanon Valley before 1,700 at Annville Saturday night.

Al Murawski, second semester freshman from Elizabeth, N. J., kept Lebanon Valley in the game until the final minutes as he dumped 33 points in 12 field goals and nine fouls. After the game it was learned that he had been playing several minutes with an injured foot, which doctors believed fractured.

After Lebanon Valley went ahead 72-71 with only three minutes remaining, Gettysburg's big guns zeroed in for six buckets from the field in one minute and 30 seconds. George Hare tallied on a rebound and Pizzaloto tallied a pair of one-hand tosses. A lay-up by George Hare and a drive-in by Bob O'Brien was followed by another drive-in by Pizzaloto to give the Bullets an 83-73 advantage with little more than a minute remaining.

Score Always Close
Previously to the final quarter spurt, the Bullets held no more than a nine-point lead at any time. The Dutchmen, who were fighting an up-hill battle, went ahead for the first time in the final quarter, 64-62, and again at 72-71.

Although Pizzaloto's second half performance drew the spotlight, Gettysburg's victory was a team affair with each individual giving a good account of himself. Gene Coder came up with his best performance of the year by scoring 14 points and playing well under the boards. When Coder fouled out in the third quarter, Tom Ketterman came in and scored two buckets on rebounds. Hare played another fine game under the boards and Warren Watson who was forced to the bench with four personals after only a half's action, did a fine job. Hank Belber and O'Brien did their usual steady job.

Gettysburg will attempt to get over the 500 mark Thursday night when it plays host to Carnegie Tech. On Saturday, the Bullets will travel to Allentown to battle Muhlenberg.

LEW WORSHAM WINS AT PHOENIX

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 29 (AP)—Lew Worsham and his reclaimed fame brought a refreshing note to the tournament golf scene today.

The 33-year-old professional from Oakmont, Pa., who won the U.S. Open crown in 1947 and very little since, captured the $10,000 Phoenix Open yesterday and led the links gypsies on to the next event on the tournament trail—the $10,000 Tucson Open starting Thursday.

Worsham finished the 72-hole stretch with a wobbly 70 and a total score of 272, 12-strokes under par-71 for the Phoenix Country club.

It was good enough to beat out veteran Lawson Little, who finished with a 68 for 273, and two other dangerous rivals, Chick Harbert and Jim Ferrier, who tied at 274.

Worsham actually won the fixture in the third round Saturday with a scorching, new competitive course record of 63, but he had to make it stick in the final 18 hole battle yesterday, and he could have missed a clear title to the $2,000 top money on his final stroke.

Worsham stared at eight feet of space separating the cup and the ball. He had to sink it for the victory. A tremendous gallery waited with the usual awful tenseness as he lined up the putt. Then, playing like the Worsham who whipped the great Sam Snead in a playoff for the National open championship at the St. Louis Country club nearly four years ago, he hit the ball firmly and it rolled toward the cup and disappeared inside.

Chicago, Jan. 29 (AP)—Betty on harness racing increased 15.9 per cent and attendance was up 3.6 per cent in 1950 as compared with 1949, the U.S. Trotting association announced today. The figures were submitted to the U.S.T.A. by the commissions and treasurer's office of the 11 states having harness racing with pari-mutuel betting. A total of $242,835,529 was bet last year, compared with $209,377,545 in 1949.

No pitcher won 20 games in the International league during the 1950 season. Tom Poholsky of Rochester had the most wins, 18.

New York, Jan. 29 (AP)—The long and short of it at Fordham: Genial Jack Coffey begins his 25th year as Fordham's graduate manager of athletics next Thursday. A few weeks later he'll begin his 30th season as baseball coach. . . . John Bach, 27-year-old basketball tutor, is in his first year of coaching of any kind. . . . Coffey, who warmed several major league benches, was a short-stop in his playing days, but his most noted pupils have been pitchers—Hank Borowy, Johnny Murphy and, more recently, Tom Casarande. . . . Although the National league was organized in 1876, it wasn't until 1883 that the circuit hired its first staff of umpires—paying them five bucks per game. . . . When his boxing days end, Ernie plans to make that his fulltime business. . . . which doesn't mean he'd ever take a dove.

SQUIRES HOST TO GHS CAGERS TUESDAY NIGHT

Gettysburg high school's cage team has high hopes of snapping a five-game losing streak when it tangles with Delone Catholic high at McSherrystown Tuesday evening. The Warriors and Squires have been encountering considerable trouble in recording victories. The Forneymen have won three of 12 games while Delone has won two in the same number of tilts.

One of Gettysburg's triumphs was a 30-27 decision over the Squires here on December 19.

Following Tuesday's tilt the Warriors will meet Carlisle here Friday evening in the opening game of the second half in the South Penn league.

Only Biglerville will be idle in the Adams County league on Tuesday. The schedule includes York Springs at Boiling Springs, Newville at New Oxford, and East Berlin at Littlestown.

Chambersburg and Shippensburg get the jump on other South Penn league members by opening their second half schedule Tuesday at Chambersburg. All other teams wait until Friday.

On Tuesday, the County Commissioners re-appointed A. R. Stevenson, Esq., Counsel to the Board; and Dr. David Horner, Physician to the County Prison.

The following gentlemen appeared as Delegates from Adams county, in the Agricultural Convention at Harrisburg: Nathan Grist, John H. Hoffman, Wm. M. Sherry, Isaac E. Wierman, Daniel Markley.

To Contractors: Proposals will be received at the Office of Dr. F. E. Vandersloot, in Gettysburg, until Wednesday, the 5th day of February, at 12 o'clock M., for the erection of a CHURCH EDIFICE for the use of the German Reformed Congregation at Gettysburg.

We learn that the chapel at Mount St. Mary's College, near Emmitsburg, was robbed on Wednesday night, a week of property valued at about $200—including crucifix, golden goblet, etc.

There is great anxiety felt for the safety of the steamer Atlantic, which has now been nearly thirty days at sea. She always made her trips before in 12 or 13 days.

On Thursday Mr. M. Sherry presented a petition from citizens of Adams county, for the incorporation of the Adams County Mutual Insurance Company; and one asking that New Chester, Adams county, be erected into an independent School district.

Eggs are selling at 15 cents a dozen at Hanover.

This is Leap Year, Presidential Year, and the Centennial Year of American Independence.

Dr. R. B. Elderdice has returned to McKnightstown and resumed the practice of medicine. He has bought out Dr. Meals, of that place.

The Devotional meetings in the Presbyterian church during the week were well attended. During the next week services are to be held every evening in the College chapel.

The installation of Rev. J. K. Demarest as pastor of the Presbyterian church, took place on Friday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Norcross of Carlisle, preached the sermon and in the absence of Dr. Crawford, gave the charge to the pastor, and Dr. Robinson gave the charge to the people. The services were interesting and drew a full house. Mr. Demarest begins his pastoral work under the most favorable and promising circumstances.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

NOT GIFTED

I receive so many letters from readers of this brief column apologizing because they say that they are not gifted with the ability to write as they feel. I don't think that matters much. It's the intent that always counts. We are all gifted with the ability to be kind, to be appreciative, and to express ourselves in our own way.

Many of the most useful and inspiring people in this world are not those who are especially gifted, but with what they have they give much! They do the little things that many of us neglect. They give cheer, which is always a welcomed commodity. They encourage others. They do what they can. No more is expected from any of us.

There is no need for anyone to be disappointed because he may think he is not as gifted as others. It isn't the formation of words that makes a letter sincerely appreciated, but the spirit and the thought from the heart. Such letters are the treasured ones with an inspiring lift to them.

The grammar may be wrong and the punctuation at fault, but every word may have been forged from pure gold in the heart. No one should be unhappy because he may think himself not gifted. Every one of us is gifted in some unique way, for none of us is exactly like some one else. It is well that we are not for then we have the opportunity of expressing ourselves as no one else could.

Many of our most prized friends may not be especially gifted, but they have still much to give, and they do. That's what keeps cementing them to us. So often we hear people say that if they were wealthy they would do a great deal of good with their money, giving it lavishly. But would they? There are those who give greatly of themselves, which is more than many a one of wealth does.

Do not allow the fact that you may think yourself not gifted to interfere with your doing what you can, in the way that you can. The smallest act on your part will warm and enrich you within. You can give sympathy. You can inspire courage. You can say—Thank you!

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

I FELL FOR IT

As I was walking down the street A temptress told I chance to meet. A temptress, brazen as could be, Who threw a brown-eyed wink at me.

And from her lovely lips I'll swear This salutation came: "Hi there!"

Omit one word from it I did, For what she said was: "Hi there, kid!"

Now that's the language of the street

Whenever man and temptress meet. So, promptly I replied in kind:

"Hi, beautiful! What's on your mind?"

Said she: "I'm thinking we could go To see a moving picture show And after that, perhaps, could stop And have a glass of strawberry pop." She gave a most delighted squeal To hear me say: "You've made a deal."

Who says that age and youth won't mix? I'm sixty past and she's just six.

He was born in Chambersburg in 1833. In 1855 he graduated from the Theological Seminary at this place. Mr. Suessrott married a daughter of the late Dr. S. S. Schmucker, of this place, who survives him with five children.

Installed: On Thursday night, Jan. 25, the following gentlemen were installed officers of Camp 203, P. O. S. of A.: P. Samuel Cassatt; V. P. Jacob W. Cress; Rec. Sec. J. M. Rowe; F. Sec. Samuel Elcholtz; M. of F. and C. Peter Warren; C. Peter Culp; T. Daniel Cashman; I. G. Keller Essick; O. G. Geo. Gordon; Chap. C. B. Shields; R. S. Jacob Noel; L. S. R. L. Tipton.

With all the care taken to remove the bodies of both Union and Rebel dead on the battle-field, occasionally one is turned up. Recently in plowing a field a short distance north of Little Round-Top, Mr. Peter Swishner discovered the bones of a human being, the point of the plough first bringing up a shoe.

"How I Relieve Distress of Monthly Female Complaint" and nervous feelings several days before... with Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—truly 'the woman's friend'

"Several days just before my period I'd feel so nervous, irritable, so restless, easily upset at the slightest thing—due to female functional monthly disturbances. I asked my druggist for something to take, and he told me Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Now I get simply amazing relief from this distress. Pinkham's Compound also relieves monthly headache, backache and those miserable 'bearing-down' pains—due to this cause. Taken regularly—it helps build up resistance against such distress.

"What also impressed me about Lydia Pinkham's Compound is that it's made strictly from nature's roots and herbs (plus Vitamin B₁). There are no harmful drugs in it. This is really a great comfort. I wish you girls troubled this way would give this great medicine a fair trial."

P. S. Pinkham's Compound tastes swell in a little fruit juice or just plain water. Or you may prefer Lydia Pinkham's TABLETS with added iron—pleasant to take and easy to carry in your purse.
